Weaving Harmony For The Littlest Indigos

Spiritually Healing For
Indigo Children
From Birth to Age Seven

are wise and wondrous souls.

They come into this earth still bathed in, and reflecting the Light of the Divine. They long retain eternal knowledge and the “secrets” from the Other Side. They hold a vision of perfection and a universal knowledge of the eternal.

Yet, once here on Earth, they are deeply pained by the great dissonance between the perfection they inherently know and the wildly imperfect world they experience.

Our littlest ones - our children from birth to age seven, continually exhibit their wisdom and their understanding. Just as often, they “act out” their unhappiness and pain at being here.

They cry out for spiritual healing of their emotional wounds. But children under the age of seven have not yet developed the cognitive abilities and skills to meaningfully participate in a spiritual healing session. They are still connected to their parents by a “spiritual umbilical cord” and do not have the full spiritual independence to act for themselves in bringing about spiritual healing. And so we offer

GraceLight

Weaving Harmony

For The Littlest Indigos

enabling a parent to act on behalf of the child To effect spiritual healing.

GraceLight

A spiritual healing process for children effected by their parents that softens the pain of separation from the Divine, lessens discomfort in Earth-existence and nourishes their vision of a world of Oneness and perfection.

A GraceLight session takes no more than fifteen minutes, and can be done in person, or by long distance.

Following a healing “script”, the parent acts on behalf of the child in the healing process.

After setting sacred space, balancing with Earth’s energy, invoking an Intention, and focusing on the child’s heart, the parent recites “Weaving the Harmony” which calls in spiritual healing for the child.

The child will begin to feel relief from spiritual pain and have his/her vision of world-perfection affirmed. The child’s Light can now fully shine and the child can celebrate his/her place as part of “all that is”.

Healing Flow

In order to be effective, GraceLight, which is an interim healing, should be repeated every month until the child reaches the age seven.

After having the first GraceLight session with a Facilitator, the parent receives a GraceLight Guidebook, so that the parent can personally conduct each monthly GraceLight session.

When the child reaches age seven, the parent should schedule a session of “The 17”:
Spiritually Healing Children’s Emotional Wounds”, where the child will fully participate in the spiritual healing.

In this way, our Littlest Indigos - who too often have been without Voice - will be able to claim their own Voice and their healing. They will be able to gaze at this world with undimmed eyes.

FOR PARENTS OF LITTLE INDIGOS

From the moment your children are born, often say to them, “Remember the secrets from the Other Side.” Then, when they are old enough, they may be able to tell you what they know.

As the veil between This Side and the Other Side becomes thinner and thinner, we will understand more of the secrets of the universe and come closer to a world of perfection.

Our children will show us the way.
And we can help them to remember!
